No one can reasonably hope for good health unless his bowels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache, dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by R. C. Hardwick.

Several tobacco men from this city attended County Court at Cadiz yesterday.

Mrs. Northern Morris, of McLean county, was last week, adjudged of unsound mind and brought to the asylum here for treatment.

About five years ago I was troubled with catarrh of the lower bowel," says C. T. Chisholm, 484 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, and although I consulted several eminent physicians who prescribed for me. I found their remedies failed to in any way relieve me, and the almost became chronic. After suffering several months, one day concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I beg to assure you that I was most agreeably surprised to find after taking two doses of the remedy that I was completely relieved of the disease that had cost me so much trouble and annoyance. I am thankful to say that I have not suffered from it since." For sale by R. C. Hardwick.

The liquor license for 1901 was fixed at $500, the same as this year. The Council adjourned to meet in extra session December 21. The minimum license for investment companies was fixed at $25.

MISS MAKY WEBBER

Dies Suddenly of An Attack of Pneumonia.

Miss Mary Webber died suddenly Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arnold, on South Main St.

She was one of the several daughters of the late Dr. A. Webber, in his day one of the most prominent citizens in Hopkinsville. She died of an attack of pneumonia.

The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Besides Mrs. Arnold, the sister at whose house she died, other surviving sisters are Mrs. John W. Breathitt and Mrs. Dr. Pentecost, of New York.

The deceased was about 70 years of age. Interment in Hopewell Cemetery.

CHILD'S CLOSE CALL.

Signs of Life Appeared While Being Shrouded.

It is reported that a child of Mr. Lee Gamble, who had been quite sick with typhoid fever was improving, when it ate too much and relapsed, and suddenly, as thought by its attendants, died. On shrouding him, they saw some signs of life, a physician was summoned, restoratives applied, and now the child is living, but is still very ill, having spasms.—Laytonville correspondent Fairview Review.
